

Cops: Pair stole disabled people's credit cards (The Milford (low interest rate credit card) Daily N

Contributed by Webmaster
Sunday, 07 March 2010
Last Updated Sunday, 07 March 2010

More info...

Two Blackstone residents were arrested Thursday after police said they stole credit/debit cards from disabled people.

Valley residents see changes in credit cards bills, fees (Roanoke Rapids Daily Herald)

ROANOKE RAPIDS Roanoke Valley credit card holders will see changes to their bills and to their terms and conditions thanks to a new law that went into effect on Feb. 22.

Credit cards sweeten rewards (New Haven Register)

Associated Press NEW YORK Not every letter from a credit card company is bad news these days.

Fed proposes rule to rein in late, over-limit charges on credit cards (USA Today)

In the latest bid to overhaul consumer banking practices, the Federal Reserve unveiled a preliminary rule last week to address credit card fees.

Crime Stoppers: Police looking for suspects in credit card theft (WRCB Chattanooga)

Chattanooga Police also need your help finding two people they say used stolen credit cards to do a little shopping.

Online credit cards, e-checks accepted by county treasurer (The County Press)

LAPEER Lapeer County Treasurer Dana Miller announced that the county can now accept tax payments online or on the telephone via credit card or electronic check. The new capability went into effect on Feb. 26. read more